"What do you want me to do for you?"

- a. The Silencers (verse 48)
Good times to silence someone.....
Not so good times.....
- Reasons why people silence others:
- Seen them in the Church?
See yourself in them?
- b. The Cheerleaders (verse 49)
Not the same people as the Silencers; sometimes not as noticeable in a crowd
Their attitude:
- Their expectations:
- Seen them in the Church?
See yourself in them?
- c. The Beggar (verse 46)
His prophetic statement (v.47).....
His no-name.....
His expectation....
How would you answer the question "What do you want me to do for you?"
- Seen him in the Church?
See yourself in him?
- d. The Healer.
A man of mercy....
The beauty of his question....
Can you see yourself following him?
Can you see yourselves adopting his attitude towards others?
